“A study of some 18th Century Sash in the area of Charleston, S.C. measured and drawn by Albert Simons, F.A.I.A. for John Sweeney, Esq., Curator of the Henry Francis DuPont Winterthur Museum, Winterthur, Delaware. Shown below is a full size section of a MUNTIN from St. Michael’s Church, Charleston, S.C., 1752-1761, This Muntin was blown out of the church by a tornado of 1938 and is illustrative of the destructive force of recurrent tropical storms in the Charleseton area. . .”
